COBB QUILTS TIGERS; HOWLEY HEADS BROWNS
Detroit, Nov. 3.—Ty Cobb today resigned as manager of the Detroit Tigers, a post he has held for 6 years.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Dan Howley of Weymouth, Mass., has been signed to succeed George Sleser as manager of the St. Louis Browns, it was announced here today.

ATTY. H. P. WILLIAMS APPOINTED TO BENCH
Gov. Fuller today selected Harold P. Williams, Federal district attorney, as the successor to Judge Frederick Lawton of the Superior Court, who resigned recently. The selection must have the approval of the Governor's Council. James H. Devlin, assistant attorney general, was appointed an associate judge of the Municipal Court of Boston to succeed Judge Burke.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

HAPPY, THEY SAY, IS THE COUNTRY THAT HAS NO HISTORY. Little has happened to worry the inhabitants.

Happy also, presumably, the nation that does not take its elections seriously, the citizens not agitated about public questions.

ELECTIONS yesterday, which might mean inability of the Administration to carry out its plans, leave the average citizen as cold as a bulletin from the Agricultural Department on raising sweet potatoes.

THE LITTLE MAN makes $5 a day. Seventy-five Americans tell the Tax Department they make more than $5,000 a day. $1,000,000 a year. At least three of us Americans own a thousand million dollars.

Why should elections worry us.

U. S. OFFICERS OWN CANADIAN BOOTLEG SHIPS IN RUM ROW

Washington, Nov. 3 (I.N.S.).—The Coast Guard's investigation of alleged conspiracy between coast guardsmen and rum-runners at the East Boston base probably will result to the court-martial of three petty officers, it was declared at headquarters here today.

Officers and men of the Boston Coast Guard Base are rum-runners.

Officers of the base owned Canadian rum-running ships.

These are among the startling charges revealed by a Coast Guardsman, confessed participant, to National Coast Guard Commander William J. Wheeler and his assistants, Captain A. R. Arnold and Captain H. R. Russ, who were buried to Boston from Washington.

Other charges are that Coast guardsmen actually worked for the rum-runners, transferring loads to speed-boats, and receiving a "union rate" of one dollar per case from the master bootleggers. Parties were staged on the rum-runners, the Coast Guardsmen, captain and crew, being the master, where rum was served.

Return parties were given on these boats, the Coast Guardsmen, patrol boats, the Coast Guardsmen, now, playing the host. At these parties there was more than one.

PICK HALL-MILLS JURY; STATE'S CASE OPENED

Romerville, N. J., Nov. 3.—With a jury selected, the first trial in the Hall-Mills murder case moved into its second phase today.

The jury was selected in a room and seven minutes. Justice Charles W. Parker of the Superior Court then dismissed the jury while he conferred with counsel.

The jury does not include a woman, although Senator Simpson, special prosecutor, had planned to ask a woman jury. Some others would better understand the workings of Mrs. Hall-Mills.

JAIL 'PETTING SHERIFF' 2 YEARS; IS RE-ELECTED

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 3.—Judge Graham, in Superior Court today sentenced Willis L. Fairbanks, re-elected yesterday for a third year as sheriff of Windsor County, to not less than two and not more than four years at hard labor in the State Prison for a conviction of embezzlement. A stay of sentence was allowed pending filing of exceptions.

WALSH VICTORY GROWS ON COMPLETE RETURNS FROM ALL OVER STATE

With the entire State complete in the tabulations, David I. Walsh stood elected today United States Senator from Massachusetts, with a plurality of 54,955 over Senator William M. Butler, who steps down through his defeat.

In a sweep that startled Republicans, Senator Walsh polled a total of 524,216 votes in the 355 cities and towns, while Butler was collecting 469,261.

The magnitude of the Walsh victory is better realized when the tables show Governor Fuller carrying the State over Colonel Gaston in the gubernatorial fight by the tremendous plurality of 187,827, the figures being complete.

Complete figures in the Fuller-Gaston battle were:

TEN STATES CALL FOR CHANGE IN DRY LAW

By WM. K. HUTCHINSON, N.Y. Staff Correspondent.
New York, Nov. 3.—American prohibition suffered a staggering defeat in the elections wherever the wet and dry issues finally were submitted to a direct vote of millions of people.

By voting on State referendums and through the election of wet candidates to the Senate, return to day revealed that ten States will be added to the list of States.

LEAGUE DEFEATED BY VOTERS IN MALDEN

Malden, only city in the United States to have on its ballot a referendum calling for United States entry into the League of Nations, today decisively expressed its disapproval of the league at the polls.

A complete tabulation of the votes in Malden showed that 5,507 voted "No" on the question of United States entry, while 3,421 voted "Yes." The margin of defeat was 2,086.

G. O. P. INSURGENTS GAIN IN SENATE AND HOUSE

New York, Nov. 3 (A.P.).—Once again working control of Congress may pass into the hands of the Republican insurgents from the West.

Slowly mounting returns from yesterday's general elections followed the return of the insurgent group to power in the Senate and indicate a reduction of the Republican majority in the House of Representatives.

The Senate insurgents had their ranks augmented by Smith W. Pumphrey, widely known as a Republican of Iowa and John J. Blaine of Wisconsin, while the Democrats won over five Republican districts.

Wadsworth in New York, Butler in Massachusetts, Ernest in Kentucky, Cameron in Arizona, and Harrell in Oklahoma, thus reducing the Republican majority in the Senate.

FOLEY VICTORY IS SADDENED BY WIFE'S ILLNESS

What was to have been a big day of celebration for William J. Foley, district attorney-elect of Suffolk County, was saddened by the illness of Mrs. Foley, a martyr to her devotion to her husband and her desire to cast her vote for him.

Mrs. Foley feared the rain and cold of yesterday to go to the polls and cast her straight Democratic ticket. But on her return she was compelled to take to her bed, and today she has a touch of grippe and a high fever.

Later today the newly-elected district attorney was cheered by the doctor's announcement that Mrs. Foley's condition is not serious.

On most of the big day for "Bill" Foley was spent at the Foley home at No. 318 Fourth street, South Boston, where he received many wires and telegrams of congratulation, but spent most of his time with Billy, Jr., the Foley two-year-old.

"I have no definite plans for the conduct of my office," he said. "I intend to enforce the laws to the limit against dope peddlers, pickpockets and robbers. But I think too much time and money is spent on minor cases, such as drunkenness and assault."

"I intend to make Suffolk County a good place for the thugs to stay away from, but I intend to be lenient to first offenders and those who seem to have a chance for reformation."

"I have one advantage which few district attorneys going into office have enjoyed. I owe my election to me, so no one can dictate to me. I owe my election to my friends who rallied to my standard, and especially to my mother, South Boston put me over."

"Tiny told me to buy a car. Buy one for your family now. Look in the Classified Ads, and make your choice. Classification 100."

TOASTS BY ROYAL TY AT BANQUET

Stockholm, Nov. 3 (A.P.).—A large gathering of royal personages has reached Stockholm for the marriage tomorrow of Crown Prince Leopold of Belgium to Princess Astrid of Sweden.

King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium sat down to a cake dinner last night given in their honor by King Gustav and Queen Victoria, at which were present the bride and groom to be and the 500 members of royalty who are to attend the nuptial ceremony and diplomatic representative and heads of foreign missions.

In a speech toasting the Belgian sovereigns King Gustav made known his pleasure over the fact that the union of the Belgian Crown Prince and his niece would draw closer together the two royal houses and strengthen the relations between Sweden and Belgium. King Albert made a happy reply in which he mentioned the past glories of Swedish history and culture.

WARM GREETING

Albert and Elizabeth received a warm greeting when their train pulled into the Central station in Stockholm yesterday to the acclaim of the Belgian National anthem. Prince Leopold greeted his mother and father fifteen miles outside the capital and when the royal train came into Stockholm, King Gustav, the Duke of Vastergotland and his wife, parents of Princess Astrid, and Astrid herself were in the station to meet them.

RUSSED ASTRID

Queen Elizabeth put her arms tenderly about Astrid and kissed her as Leopold stood nearby. Gustav embraced and kissed Albert on both cheeks.

The city is taking on a gala aspect in honor of the wedding. Flags of Sweden and Belgium are flying everywhere and there also is a big display of multi-colored bunting. Wedding gifts continue to arrive at the palace in large numbers.

HUNTS RICH HARVARD DIVORCEE

New York, Nov. 3.—Beautiful but eccentric Dorothy Gates Herrman, one-time Follies beauty and chorus-girl wife of a millionaire Harvard student, Philip Herrman, has disappeared from her Broadway haunts, and her going is an utter mystery.

Her attorney, Lucius Pugh, after employing an army of detectives to find her, today aided in police, fearing that the girl's eccentricities might have led her into danger.

Known along the Rialto where she was only a seventeen-year-old dancer, she leaped into national prominence when she eloped with the Harvard student son of James H. Herrman, multimillionaire New York contractor.

They lived together six months, court developments revealed. Then began her strange career. First she made her debut in the $100,000, singing, singing of affection. Then she and her husband for a period.

While these cases were pending from 1915 to 1925, she was twice arrested on Broadway for throwing her arms about automobile pedestrians, kissing them and urging them to join her in kneeling on the sidewalk in prayer.

Then it was reported she had received a substantial out-of-court settlement from the Herrmans. She became a frequent visitor at the Rialto to night clubs.

MAINE BABY WEIGHS

21 POUNDS AT BIRTH

Auburn, Me., Nov. 3.—This city is boasting that it possesses the biggest baby ever born in the State of Maine and perhaps in New England. She is lavender Katharine Crocker, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Crocker, and she weighed 21 pounds when she was born and the total is now 24.

Husband Forced Her to Pick Up Coins With Lips, Judge Told

Portland, Me., Nov. 2.—Arthur H. Bartlett forced her to pick up coins from the floor with her lips, according to testimony of Mrs. Louisa Bartlett, making a divorce in the Superior Court. Other forms of abuse and tortures were testified to by Mrs. Bartlett.

They were married in Boston, N. Y., in 1912, and Bartlett was transferred to the short time they lived together. Bartlett did not appear to contest. Decision was reserved.

After drinking, and on another occasion a bottle of liquor was taken to the restaurant table where she resided with him for drinking.

Regarding talk prior to their marriage about her father, providing money for their support, Merrill said such a conversation took place in Washington in the presence of his own father.

"My father agreed to allow me $2,000 a year," said Merrill. "Although my father was present, I understood he was to contribute toward my support. My father did give me about $2,000 a year, but I never received a cent from my father."

U. S. COURT DROPS $100,000 SUIT AGAINST SHIP BOARD

After more than six months' deliberation on facts brought out at a preliminary hearing, Judge James M. Morton in Federal Court today dismissed a suit for $100,000 brought against the U. S. Shipping Board by the American Maritime Union.

The board for alleged discrimination and fraudulent charges arising out of the discharge as chief engineer of the U. S. S. Pocahontas, Emergency No. 1, at Baltimore, Md., in September, 1917, in dismissing the suit, Judge Morton sustained a demurrer brought against it and ordered the board to pay the plaintiff's costs.

Judge Morton suggested the plaintiff might seek his rights under the act, but on condition the charges be made public.

INSURGENTS OF G. O. P. GAIN IN BOAT HOUSES

On to capture Republican seats in Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and Arizona, and believe they still have a chance of victory in Indiana and Oregon.

With more than three-fourths of the seats in the House accounted for, the Democrats have made a net gain of six or thirty less than the number necessary to give them control. Should they pick up even half of the missing seats, which they hope to take from the Republicans, the insurgents would be placed in a commanding position.

William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee, who has served two years by appointment as the successor of the late Henry Cabot Lodge, was snatched away from his duties by the death of Senator David L. Walsh by a pulmonary attack.

Mr. Butler's death removes him immediately from his place in the Senate where Senator Walsh now takes rank as the junior colleague of Senator Gillett, by whom he was defeated by a margin of 18,000 two years ago.

Butler held office by appointment, the Democrats had been unable to secure a successor to the late Henry Cabot Lodge, who was snatched away from his duties by the death of Senator David L. Walsh by a pulmonary attack.

Dress the Baby? Sure! Presto! Machinery Soon Will Do It!

New York, Nov. 2.—"The day is coming when mothers will dress their babies by machinery, in the opinion of John R. Voorhees, Jr., Grand Sachem of the Tammany, Wisnawski, and president of the Board of Education, who cast his 10th vote by machinery.

"The next thing we know," he says, "will have food lifted in our mouths by machines."

Utah, chairman of the powerful finance committee, re-elected by substantial majorities were Walter H. Jones of Washington, Peter Norbeck of South Dakota, Frank R. Gifford of Idaho, Porter H. Dale of Vermont and Hiram Bingham, of Connecticut.

Samuel M. Shortridge had a substantial lead over John R. Elliott in California.

In addition to Brookhart and the Republican insurgents, who have served two years by appointment as the successor of the late Henry Cabot Lodge, was snatched away from his duties by the death of Senator David L. Walsh by a pulmonary attack.

U. S. COURT DROPS $100,000 SUIT AGAINST SHIP BOARD

After more than six months' deliberation on facts brought out at a preliminary hearing, Judge James M. Morton in Federal Court today dismissed a suit for $100,000 brought against the U. S. Shipping Board by the American Maritime Union.

The board for alleged discrimination and fraudulent charges arising out of the discharge as chief engineer of the U. S. S. Pocahontas, Emergency No. 1, at Baltimore, Md., in September, 1917, in dismissing the suit, Judge Morton sustained a demurrer brought against it and ordered the board to pay the plaintiff's costs.

Judge Morton suggested the plaintiff might seek his rights under the act, but on condition the charges be made public.

FULLER FAMILY NOT ELATED BY HIS VICTORY

A happy, but by no means excited, re-elected Governor of Massachusetts, Alvan T. Fuller by name, today thanked all his friends for their trust in him, but denied that his family was greatly elated. Mrs. Fuller and the little Fuller, in his opinion, rather preferring "that he had been defeated."

A huge stack of congratulatory messages greeted the Governor as he entered the executive chambers. In behalf of his business colleagues and Mrs. Katherine A. Linsden presented the Governor with a beautiful clock, a handsome vase, while Mrs. Howard P. MacDoe of Bangor gave the Chief Executive a three-day "victory cake."

More congratulatory messages and flowers were heaped on the desk of Lieutenant Governor Allen.

NEWBERRY 'JINX' COSTS 5 MORE SEATS IN SENATE

Washington, Nov. 3 (U.N.S.)—The jinx of "Newberryism" appears to still pursue the Senators who voted to seat the Michigan Senator four years ago.

Of twelve Senators who voted for Newberry, seeking re-election, five were beaten at the polls yesterday.

They were Senators Cameron, Arkansas; Harrell, Oklahoma; Wadsworth, New York; Egan, Kentucky; and Weller, Maryland, all Republicans. Added to these are the primaries, nine of the so-called Newberry Senators were retired to private life this year, leaving but four ten of the original 44 in the Senate.

Senators who voted against Newberry were far more fortunate, all seven who were candidates being re-elected. Of the 41 who originally voted against Newberry, 34 are now in the Senate. Only six were defeated at the polls in the last four years and one of them, Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, was re-elected successfully.

Ovens! Dry Heat!! Baked!!!

They're wonderful beans—Heinz Oven-Baked-Beans—rich, fragrant, golden-brown, full of flavor and nutriment, tender and meaty.

Why? Because they are baked with dry heat in real ovens. That's why.

Look for "Oven-baked" on the label. It's the only way to be sure of getting beans that are really baked, because only beans that are baked can be labeled baked. Look for—ask for—enjoy more—

QUEEN MARIE DINES A BOY 'STOWAWAY'

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3 (A.P.)—A small boy may look at a Queen—he carried away from his home for it.

Lester Brown, 10, was found aboard Queen Marie's special train a few minutes after it had left Sand Point, Idaho, yesterday. He was in tears. He had slipped aboard the train as it slowed down for Sand Point and had been unable to hop off as it passed the station because of the press of the crowd.

Quickly aroused, the boy and the royal candy was brought into play. He was the Queen's guest until Spokane was reached.

Marie herself telegraphed the boy's parents. It read: "Please have no anxiety about Lester. He is dining with myself and my children, and I assure you he will be returned to you at the earliest possible moment and be taken care of until he is put in your hands by a representative of mine. We are happy to have him with us."

After playing bean bag with Prince Nicolas and Princess Diana, Lester dined with the royal family.

Carol's Renunciation of Throne Absolute

New York, Nov. 3 (A.P.)—Former Crown Prince Carol's renunciation of his right of succession to the throne of Rumania has been accepted as "definite and absolute," it was announced here today by Georges Cristiano, who arrived on the liner France to assume his duties as the new Rumanian minister to Washington.

M. Cristiano said the Rumanian court was already acting on that understanding of the situation. Arrangements have been made to establish a regency for Carol's son, Michael, now about five years old, in the event of the death or indisposition of King Ferdinand.

SAVES WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Women and children were led through smoke-filled corridors to the safety of the street by Patrolman John Devir of the Hanover street police station today when fire was discovered in the five-story apartment building numbered 42 and 44 Lewis street, North End.

St. John's Parochial school is located directly across the street from the scene. Sisters there were assured by Deputy Chief Corcoran, J. O'Brien that the blaze was under control and that the school children were in no danger.

Seven families occupy the building in which the fire started. Patrolman Devir noticed flames coming from the store of John Marston on the first floor. He sounded an alarm and then went to the upper floors and led groups of women and children from the smoke-filled structure. The flames were confined to the third floor, with damage estimated at about $1,000.

WHITE PLAGUE DRIVE IN 100,000 LETTERS

Opening an annual drive for funds with which to fight the "white plague," the Boston Tuberculosis Association today prepared to send out 100,000 letters containing Christmas seals.

Rapidly increasing work in the Prudential Prevention and other health units make the raising of additional funds a necessity. Dr. John R. Davis, 2nd, president of the Boston branch, declared. Miss Bernice W. Billings, secretary of the association, received 25,000 Christmas seals and 625 health bonds for use in the drive. Volunteers to aid in the campaign are asked to communicate with the association headquarters at No. 334 Columbus avenue.

WILLIAM R. HEARST IS GUEST OF COOLIDGE

Washington, Nov. 3 (A.P.)—William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, called on President Coolidge today and remained as a luncheon guest.

After a visit to the White House office Mr. Hearst said he had not discussed politics with the President and that Mr. Coolidge had had nothing to say on that score. The publisher extended an invitation for Mr. Hearst to spend his vacation next summer in California. The invitation was taken under advisement.

LA GUARDIA HAS TIGHT SQUEEZE IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 3 (A.P.)—Pleased to H. LaGuardia, who was elected to the House of Representatives two years ago as a Democrat, narrowly escaped defeat yesterday when he ran for re-election on the Republican ticket. Complete returns from the 25th District gave LaGuardia 8,123 to 8,058 for his Democratic opponent, H. W. Hubbard.

SWEETING VICTORY FOR REPUBLICANS IN IDAHO

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 3 (A.P.)—Partial returns from 60 out of Idaho's 44 counties apparently assured a sweeping victory for the anti-Republican ticket, with H. C. Baidrige expected to poll the largest vote over incumbent, an Idaho Governor, Senator Frank R. Gooding. Republican had a lead of 16,000 votes.

CAN YOU SUGGEST THE CLEVEREST WORDS TO COMPLETE THE HEADLINE IN THE ADVERTISEMENT BELOW?

Third $2,000.00 CONTEST

"Don't be stubborn, Sir!"

Solomon was the first wise man who said "Nothing ventured . . . nothing gained."

America was discovered by a man who'd try anything once.

We KNOW that OLD GOLD is a better cigarette.

We KNOW that it is the smoothest and most satisfying cigarette ever parked between a pair of lips.

But the proof is in the smoking.

How can we "make good" our claims if you won't test them fairly with your taste! Here's what a fair tryout of OLD GOLD will prove to you:—That a cigarette can have plenty of punch without any punishment. That it can have all the aroma and fragrance in the world without taxing or tiring your tongue or throat. That you can smoke it morning, noon or night . . . as many as you like . . . with maximum enjoyment and without regret or after-effect. Now we leave it to you, Sir!—Isn't it worth a few cents to make these great discoveries?

THIS is the third Old Gold headline contest—with another golden pot of $2,000 in prizes. Get on your thinking cap—try and get $1,000 out of that pot!

The Lorillard Company think the above is as ready as for Old Gold Cigarettes. But what shall the headline be? A headline makes or mangles an advertisement.

You are invited to submit your headline. The shiniest man in the picture is refusing to try Old Gold. The young lady behind the counter knows that a stubborn man misses a lot of thrills. What is she saying to him, to get him to change his mind?

Your headline must not be over ten words, including the four first words "DON'T BE STUBBORN, SIR!" That gives you a maximum of six words in all.

53 prizes totalling $2,000.00 will be awarded for the 52 headlines which most cleverly get over the point of this advertisement . . . in the opinion of the judges.

CONTEST RULES

- (1) Contest opens November 1st and closes November 15th. All replies must be mailed to reach the Lorillard Company by or before midnight of November 15th. Winners will be announced November 20th.
- (2) Anyone of either sex may compete, excepting employees of the Lorillard Company or their affiliated companies.
- (3) Read the text of the above advertisement carefully. Use pointed out the features of Old Gold Cigarettes. Then submit the most appropriate headline starting with the words "DON'T BE STUBBORN, SIR!" This score the one line worthy all else. The score the one line worthy all else. The score the one line worthy all else.

(4) Originality, cleverness, brevity, wit and logic will count.

(5) Send your suggestions to the contest box in the advertisement, or a post in the morning of November 1st, only, sign your full name and address. You may submit as many suggestions as you like, but each must be on a separate sheet of paper, or a separate coupon—with your name and address in full.

(6) In the event that several persons submit the same winning headline, with equal scores and equal replies for every condition, the prize for that headline will be divided equally among them.

(7) The P. Lorillard Company will have the right to use as it pleases any or all headlines suggested, whether they secure a prize or not.

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON SOCIETY

Lindsey Memorial Chapel of Emmanuel Church to Be Scene of Manly-Hawkins Wedding Nov. 24

Mrs. Lindsey Loring Gives Chilton Club Dance Tonight in Honor of Her Daughter, Margaret

THE LESLIE LINDSEY Memorial Chapel, the exquisite "Lady" Chapel of Emmanuel Church, is selected by Miss Georgiana Wells Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Trask Hawkins, for her marriage on November 24 to William Keyser Manly of Baltimore.

A BRIDAL of simplest arrangement is planned, the bride to have as one attendant, Miss Frances Cross of Providence as maid of honor. The hour of the ceremony is half past four in the afternoon, and there then is a small reception at the Chilton Club home of Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins.

THEODORE VORHEES' youthful Philadelphia (whose marriage to Miss Mary Witte placed him in the benighted class not so very long ago) will be the best man, and for under there is a staff of the bridegroom's intimates of college days.

MR. MANLY, of family connection placing him in Baltimore's highest circles, will take his bride to live in that pleasant South-east city, after a wedding journey to Europe, occupying nearly the entire Winter.

THE LINDSEY CHAPEL, even of ecclesiastical boards, and reckoned by numerous windows prominently a brilliant blue, is just the setting for a bride who wears without elaborate pageantry.

BOTH MRS. LINDSEY and the late Mr. Lindsey desired that this beautiful memorial to their daughter should be used by many brides. They also expressed the wish that no flowers be used at the altar. But the altar needs no added adornment.

MRS. HALL PALE. "Dr. Hall married a woman seven years older than himself," said Simpson, "and he got what men usually get when they marry that way—he got himself in a cold, boyish home."

Mrs. Hall's face remained expressionless and very pale as he made this statement. "And so he turned elsewhere for friendship and love."

The prosecutor described the courtship of the handsome Dr. Hall, and the pretty wife of the justice in the court; how she sang in the choir; how she did church work for the rector; how their interests became entwined and finally, how friendship developed into love.

"They got so that they used to write letters to each other," he continued. "Mrs. Hall got hold of some of the letters Mrs. Mills wrote to her husband, and I will show you, gentlemen, that she became insanely jealous."

DEBUTANTE CELEBRATIONS for Miss Weeks continue through the evening. With Miss Weeks entertaining at dinner, in formally, for the powers and a group of young men, and taking her guests on to the theatre.

ORIGINALLY, it was planned that Miss Lily Cushing and Miss Mary Margaret Loring, who takes the place of her mother, Mrs. Thatcher Loring, were giving this evening at the Chilton Club. Miss Cushing, however, is detained in New York and Miss Loring carries solo honors.

ANOTHER CHANGE from first plans is the substitution in the evening line, of Miss Margaret Loring, who takes the place of her mother, Mrs. Thatcher Loring. Whichever the change, however, the debutante of importance and their attendants will find the evening one of the season's pleasantest.

MRS. LINDSEY LORING, mother of Miss Mary Margaret Loring, entertaining at the dinner at the Chilton Club, will be the dance, and other guests giving dinner are Mrs. Henry M. Chilton and Mrs. Joshua Crane.

A Frankly Revealing Serial of Boston Night Life

By WARNER FABIAN

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR

Derry Thomas, an attractive business girl, while shopping, permits Tony Landor, a young man whose name she has overheard but whom she does not know, pay for a dress fabric she cannot afford. He leaves her without learning her name. Mr. Ostrander, her employer, has her promise not to marry for three years. Derry goes out with Beverly Greenway. He admits he is a Summer bachelor. They meet Preston Smith, a Boston politician, at a North Shore club, and then go to a Boston night club. There Derry dances with several attractive men. Martin Cole calls at her office. Derry meets Willowdean French, an old friend. The latter dines with Professor Blackly, another Summer bachelor.

CHAPTER XI

"We thank you, one and all," said Miss McIntyre, with suspicious sweetness, and turned to Blackly for sympathy. "I simply can't get the lines fast," she complained.

"No, you ever try studying them with a glass?"

"No, what do you think I am, a Kewpie?"

"Try it. Hang the sheet up so that when you face it you can't see anything else. Then strip your mind of everything for five minutes."

"I will be whiplike," insisted Cole, in a pretended soft voice.

"And take up whatever passes that when you face it you can't see anything else. Then strip your mind of everything for five minutes."

KIN OF ENGLISH LORD HELD AS FOE OF DUCE

London, Nov. 2 (A.P.)—Advice from Italy says Mrs. Algernon Sladen, niece of Lord Dunsany, has been arrested at about 10 o'clock, charged with "Socialist utterances against Mussolini."

An article published by the Daily Sketch today, saying she had been arrested, was followed by a dispatch to the press and a note from the British embassy, to the effect that she had been arrested on the grounds that she had been seen in the company of a man named "X" who was known to be a Socialist.

The news of Mrs. Sladen's arrest, which she reached London in a brief letter from her place of detention to a relative, Mrs. Sladen, sister of the plaintiff, Mary Bamford. The letter was dated October 2, but gave no details concerning the circumstances of her arrest.

Mrs. Sladen says Mrs. Sladen went to Italy in August with her husband, Algernon Sladen, a cousin of Duke of Devonshire, who has written books about Italy and is a great admirer of Mussolini. Mrs. Sladen describes Mrs. Sladen as "a young woman of definite ideas and marked ability, who takes great interest in problems affecting humanity."

In addition to her relationship to Lord Dunsany, Mrs. Sladen is connected with the families of the Duke of Devonshire and Lord Craven.

SOCIETY FOLK PROTEST BACK BAY ALLEYS

Members of the social register and widely known physicians, residents of Back Bay were later removed by the city police in order to clean up the streets and improve the conditions.

Dr. William A. Rolfe of No. 231 Beacon street, said, "I have a right to live in my own home as neat and clean and safe as the front entrance."

"When the wind blows and the papers become windowed and are strewn in the alleys and in the yards, I assure you it is no pleasant sight."

"The litter in the ash cans is certainly not removed as often as it should be. Leaving them exposed as they are, a perfect haven for the breeding of flies and insects is of course, decidedly unhealthy and unsanitary. One cannot keep a place looking neat if there is no cooperation in removing the rubbish."

Description of the "wretched filth" cluttered in the alleys and narrow passageways was characterized by others as "impossible for mere words."

"You cannot put it too strong when you decide the condition of Back Bay alleys," agreed Mrs. Harcourt Amory of No. 238 Beacon street. "It is a fine idea to start the habit of cleaning up and if the Boston Evening American is interested in starting something about it, good luck."

Dr. William A. Rolfe of No. 231 Beacon street, said the ancient litter attracts rats and encourages the accumulation of filth and unsanitary rubbish.

Room for improvement also was suggested by Dr. Brown of No. 1 Marlboro street.

RICH AND IN SOCIETY, BUT SHE WAS UNHAPPY

MRS. EDWARD SOHIER WELCH

A Paris divorce has been granted Mrs. Welch, the former Barbara Hinkley, who was married in Cambridge, Mass., June 3, 1909. She has been a prominent figure in Boston society.

WELCH'S WIFE, AFTER HE WEDS, GETS DEGREE

Mrs. E. Sohier Welch, former wife of the Boston attorney, has received her final divorce decree, according to an announcement by the Paris courts today.

The lawyer, who at first was believed to have gone abroad to effect a reconciliation, ended all such rumors and reports last September when in London, he married Mrs. Margaret Pearmain Bowditch, who was shown in the film as "the lovely wife" she was divorced from.

Mrs. Welch, who was Barbara Hinkley, then the lover of the younger set, two decades ago, was married to her lawyer, then a Harvard student, in 1909.

When she filed her divorce action in Paris, friends in Boston were ruminating for it had been believed the French alliance was without a flaw.

Two other decrees involving American couples announced by the Paris courts today were granted to Miss Percy Murphy from Marlboro Heights on Murphy on the grounds of his "adultery," and to Margaret Lee, a divorcee from Boston, on the grounds of her "adultery."

BIBLE STORY IS CLEW AGAINST AIMEE

Los Angeles, Nov. 2 (A.P.)—A book on religion today supplied a New Englander with a clue to the prosecution of the Aimee Semple McPherson, accused evangelist, to an alleged elopement in a Carmel bungalow last May with her former radio operator, Kenneth G. Ormiston.

An opposing attorney in the Aimee Semple McPherson preliminary hearing on criminal conspiracy charges prepared to go into court today to make their closing arguments. District Attorney A. A. Rye has dispatched investigators to Oakland to trace the source of the latest bit of purported evidence, a work entitled "The Divine Plan of the Aimee Semple McPherson."

The volume, Mrs. Aimee M. McPherson, of Oakland, said in a letter to Rye, had been given her last May by a woman occupant of the bungalow at Carmel, the one in which Ormiston has admitted he eloped with her.

The prosecution contends that "Mrs. X" was the head of the cult known as the Aimee Semple McPherson.

Tunney Beats Gibbons Proving His Right to Meet Champ

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX
This is the twentieth chapter of Gene Tunney's own story—written by himself—his life and fighting career, written exclusively for the Boston Evening American.

TOM GIBBONS, that crafty ring master from the Northwest, went to the arena with me, June 5, 1925. He brought thirty-six years in age and fourteen years in glorious ring experience with him.

A superb boxer he was with a defense that only a rapier could penetrate, it seemed. For fifteen rounds he had tied up the great champion, Jack Dempsey, at Shelby, Montana, where banks, instead of jawbones, were broken for the sake of the fight.

We met in a scheduled fifteen-round fray at the Polo Grounds. Prior to meeting Dempsey, Tom had run up a string of eighteen consecutive knockouts.

Gibbons, then, with all his years of battle, was no myth, no goblin in a flimsy fairy tale. He was a man who gained his fame in the ring and not by belching out the ropes—which is more than one might say for another so-called contender for the championship.

To make myself clear, I mean Harry Wills, who was a shadow with a voice.

I recorded Gibbons as a very definite outside in my march to the championship. To remove that obstacle, I contacted to accept a rubber match sum for my services by that promoter Charles A. Bismahan, one of the owners of the New York Giants baseball club, could meet Tom's demands for $100,000 guarantee.

Here was another instance where I sacrificed material rewards for a CHANCE. That was and is my only form of gambling. The host was my official entry in the ranks of the boxer.

I had, shortly before that time, relinquished my claim to the light-heavyweight championship. If I remember correctly, I weighed 151 and one-half pounds for the fight. I would have come in heavier had not the terrific heat of the week preceding the bout caused me to perspire abnormally in my training.

Torrid Weather Plays Leading Role
New York was an even when I came down from my White Sulphur Springs camp the day before the fight. The intense heat kept me from sleeping more than an hour that night. I tossed about in my bed.

The weather continued to torment me the day of the fight. It was real torture to think of battling that humid night, especially with those 1000 watt Kliegins shining above the ring. I could feel the burn of the heat waves through my boxing shoes.

I did receive some advice from Billy Gibson, who had placed a buzz cut of his near my corner and in which he packed Turkish towels to place on my head and neck.

I went first the ring that night, bucking a belief that I might be "floored." But I felt that Gibbons got on me and kept me there, even though I was hit with a black left. The combat, however, developed into an easy one for me. I was not knocked off my feet. I outboxed and outlasted this master.

Gibbons always was hard to hit. seldom did anyone strike him on the point of the jaw. He would keep his jaw down to his chest and protect it with his arms and shoulders. I had to devise some way, then, of roasting him. I studied what I call the "snus punch." Instead of aiming for the jaw, or "button," I would shoot, just for the bones under the eye.

I also managed to knock completely his left hook to the liver and have him with my own foot hook to the organ. The 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

In that bout, Gibbons showed only one flash of fighting form. I tied him up at will—the man who never was before. I planned my strategy to the extreme. He expected me to knock him out, I would knock him to his stomach.

I did up points round after round. Before I could have scored him away earlier than I found that I wanted to learn all I could from this great boxer, so I fought at a rather even rate, absorbing false knowledge as I saw him try to ring craft.

Along about the seventh round, I brought my right into play, scoring to head and body. In the eighth came the only upset that Gibbons could muster. He landed three solid punches to my head. But they did no damage. In the ninth, I went to finish Tunney. I jabbed with a little more power. I threw to his liver and stomach with more steam in back of the blows. I drove my right to his short ribs and under his heart with all my power. I could feel him weaken. I could feel him quiver. Then I finished my right with crushing force to the jaw, which by this time was quite unscathed.

Tommy half turned as the crusher came. Then he sat down near his corner like a tired old warrior. His arms were on the canvas, as though he were trying to prop up his weary back.

There was a strange light in his deep set eyes, for it was the first time this game and crafty man ever had been fooled. He didn't seem to know what had happened. His face was blood-amed. Blood came from his nose. There was a cut over one eye. The next night, the white-hot heat and the terrible perspiration had broken Gibbons' headband down with sweat. He was through and I knew it.

Dramatic Finish for Epochal Fight

You could hear the hammer of the time keeper as it fell in dirge-like precision. It was a death knock of a truly great ring man. I was in my corner as the count of seven came. Gibbons nearly lifted himself to his feet. I lay back of me. I could hear the voices of my handlers against the blurring ring of the last.

I permitted my antagonist—now my very victim—to get his hands raised before trying to strike me. I have to be at it in a situation like this. But the game call for the finish, so I put just enough power in the right-hand call to the jaw to sink Tom once again on his haunches. This time there will not be any more of the count to be heard.

Hammered, Gibbons, tore to the limit that never burns in a fighting heart, rose but it was too late. Referee Natus walked to Gibbons and so did I. I have always been through the battered ribs and wished me well.

I was now twenty-seven years old and believed I could whip anyone. I had done something Dempsey could not do. I had knocked out the great Gibbons. I challenged Dempsey and I challenged Wills. The latter knocked the issue and I was destined to fight only a few more times before moving in on Dempsey. It began to look as though the long road to fame and fortune was all but traversed.

(Tomorrow Tunney tells the story of his battle with Mack and Jack Sharkey)

TIGERS OLD EDGE CRIMSON

New York, Nov. 3 (A. P.)—Princeton and Harvard, headlining Saturday's football bill of traditional rivalry, are not again among Eastern friendly foes of long standing. The University of Pennsylvania and Penn State reserve a football controversy. After a season of hostility for a year, extending over a period of 30 years.

The first game between Princeton and Harvard was played in 1877. A total of 28 contests having been completed in the meantime, Princeton has amassed a lead with 16 victories against nine triumphs for Harvard. Three were no-decision games.

Princeton has won four of the last six games. Two were recorded in 1919 and 1920. Pennsylvania and Penn State began to debate the football issue in 1920. A total of 26 games were played between the two schools in 1920 and Penn State six times. The 1924 contest resulted in a scoreless tie and there was no meeting last year.

In 1923 Pennsylvania nose Penn State out, 7 to 6, but was crushed by the Nittany Lion the following year, 13 to 0. In 1925, the two schools met again in a game which was a scoreless tie.

West Virginia and Pittsburgh do not face each other as adversaries. In recent years the names have been uniformly close. Pittsburgh won last year by a score of 15 to 0.

The year before 14 to 7. West Virginia margin of victory in 1922 was 15 to 7. The second successive triumph the previous season was being 20 to 6. Pittsburgh won 31 to 15 in 1921 and 46 to 12 in 1920. Both teams have scored in every game since 1919, when Pittsburgh won 34 to 0.

Tigers Show Drive in Final Drill for Big Game

By Ralph Gilroy.

Former Princeton Halfback.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 3.—Princeton has developed a consistency in her offense that today brought forth words of commendation from Coach Bill Roper. The Tigers' attack, lacking in potency and snap in early season contests against weaker opposition, will be saturated with speed and drive for the battle with Harvard on Saturday.

Roper will bend his efforts today and tomorrow to bolster the weak spots in the Tigers' armor. There will be no more scrimmaging, just formation and signal drills with plenty of skull practice.

The team will leave here Thursday evening and is scheduled to hold a brief drill in the Harvard Stadium on Friday morning.

While Coach Roper has not yet announced the official lineup for the classic on Saturday, it probably will consist of Moser and Blanton, end; Dwyer and French, tackle; Cavanaugh, guard; and Stagg, center.

Ralph Gilroy

The Princeton backfield are Cavanaugh, French, Blanton and Stagg.

CAULKINS' PLAY CLASS.

I had the privilege of playing against the Tiger eleven in its final scrimmage and if the young men who wear the Orange and Black show the speed and versatility of attack against Harvard that they displayed in an hour of fierce battle against a combination of forward and backfield players, the Princeton team will be one of the best fought on record.

Caulkins, who will play as quarterback in the Harvard game, looks like one of the best of a long line of fine Tiger attack callers.

His judgment of plays and his ability to diagnose the intent of the opposition stamp him as a really great player who will bear a deal of watching.

Stagg, who will appear in the Tiger lineup, needs no introduction to the Harvard eleven.

His past achievements in Big Three games have made him a marked man. He is one of the smoothest triple-threat football men in the country and will be in good condition for the fray at Cambridge, although he probably will not start.

BACKFIELD IMPROVES.

The Princeton backfield, as a whole, looks like a standard Tiger ball carrying contingent. Roper has spent a lot of time in ground protection for the runner with the ball and in inventing deceptive plays with the result that Princeton will be in a position to disclose some new stuff against Harvard.

Princeton has shown signs of potential power in all her games to date, carrying the ball into the scoring zone only to fall through lack of the final drive. This lack of a final punch has been eliminated, Coach Roper believes, and he expects the team to show the "one drive" within the twenty-yard line that has marked the play of the team since the center mark.

The line is changing hand and has a good lift. The backs are running hard and interfering for each other with almost perfect coordination.

MILES TAKES GRADE.

The Roper system calls for a chosen offensive at No. 1 back position. Miles, the big fullback, has been filling this position very capably.

Coach Stagg Sees

Elimination of Shift

Chicago, Nov. 3 (A.P.)—Coach A. Stagg of the University of Chicago, one of the veterans of the game, thinks it may be necessary to entirely abolish the shift.

"I would not like to see that happen, but it may come," Stagg said in commenting on a move being currently discussed in western conference as a possibility of the next rules committee session.

From various parts of the country there have come his full reports of difficulty in keeping shifts within the law against a team being in motion before the ball is passed back.

"It seems a shame to deny the offensive team some freedom of formation and control. It is to deny the team the right to make a play for its attack," said Stagg. "Such a limitation would seriously hamper the team with the ball and probably make the game less interesting."

SCHOOLBOY CHATTER

By EDDIE DONDERO

BOD O'KEEFE, Revere High athletic mentor, is grooming his charges for the Lynn Classical contest at the Amusement City this week-end. The standing in the North Shore circuit is by no means settled yet and the natives are looking for the break in the fortunes of Lynn Indians and Peabody that will give them a chance for titular honors.

It will be interesting to note how well Peabody stacks up against Jack Leary's fine Waltham eleven on Saturday. Waltham trounced over Peabody in an open season game and the Peabody boys are looking for a better showing in the Lynn Classical.

Revere has an open season game on Saturday and it is hoped either Gloucester or Peabody can be booked. Games up to now have had but the athletic authorities figure on an easy contest with the Varsity in some other not so good a week.

Gloucester, Waltham, Peabody and Peabody are the only teams with undefeated records at this time. In some points, however, the Varsity is the only team that has not yet played the Varsity.

VILLA NOVANO SET UP, SAYS CAVANAUGH

By JOHN B. GILLOOLY.

"We would be delighted to meet the best team in the country," said Major Cavanaugh when queried today regarding the Boston College choice for the coming football campaign.

Boston College has suffered greatly because of a poor schedule this year. With one of the amateur eleven that has ever represented the Harvard and the "Cavemen" are on the outside looking in.

"My team is one of the best in the East," continued Cavanaugh, but regardless of the fact that the team is playing a fighting brand of football.

"Newspaper critics are of the opinion that because the team we meet this fall represent small colleges, they are not on the gridiron. The Villa Novano is one of the best college teams in the East."

Major Cavanaugh has indicated the Rocking system in the Villa Novano and we are going to have our hands full to keep in the win column. However, whether we win or lose, we won't get our credit. Our eight games may be with small institutions but they are all hard ones.

"Westerners believe that the Haskell Indians have the best team over at the side of the Mississippi. Big Chick McDaniel has scored more points than any team in the country. And yet we know it is a soft game for Boston."

Major Cavanaugh has a team as good as any in the East and that we are not playing as easy as some suspect.

"Next fall we are going to clash with the country's best eleven."

Manager Reynolds is dictating with many big colleges at the present time including Cornell, New York University, and Michigan. Michigan and Wisconsin of the West are in the conference.

Harvard Eleven Proves Ability to Stop Princeton Attack

By TED LYNCH.

TIGER meat, tough stuff to digest in previous years, promises to be a desert on the Harvard menu this fall.

Princeton players like the taste so well they can barely wait until Saturday to pronounce it a packed house at the Stadium how well it agrees with them.

Princeton's new line is served by the Harvard eleven. Harvard is ready and willing to swallow it. In fact it will not have any scruples of the hitherto indigestible diet.

HERE is a charming room which, because of its low slanting ceiling was used as a mere storage place till its owner discovered that its main defect could be remedied by papering the walls and the slanting portion of the ceiling with a verti- cally striped paper.

Right in that room were stored the two pieces which became the nucleus of its decoration: A solid mahogany Colonial chest of drawers and a bed of no particular design, whose handsome, high, curved headboard, while its simplicity could easily be interpreted into a Colonial scheme.

To emphasize the period look, several characteristic pieces were selected. A quaint Queen Anne mirror and a Queen Anne mirror instead of the usual nondescript com- mode or dressing table, and a Wind- sor armchair.

Textile next received attention. Fabrics the damask, taffeta, or sil- kens do not possess the unobtrus- cated qualities—the primness, the simplicity, the light-hearted joyous- ness, consistent with the Colonial style; but cretonne draperies, a tur- et or a hooked rug which above the color of the wallpaper and a high bedspread and rocker slip in was dominant has proved quantity typi- cal and harmonizing.

The only wall picture, placed above a table, had to be rather low for proper spacing. A second picture adorns the top of the chest of drawers, with a slight ledge to transform the modestly shaped radiator into a delightfully picture- worthy table.

MEDBURY SAYS--

By John P. Medbury

A WELL KNOWN authority on etiquette says that showing good table manners is an art. This may be true, but check-grubbing is a profession.

WHEN the waiter brings the bill to your table, two or three men usually reach for it at once and it takes a while to let the other fellow get hold of it first.

TO be a second or two late is where ability comes in.

ONE diner always used to dip his thumb in olive oil so that the check would slip off his hand.

AND if he got a chance he poured molasses in the other man's finger bowl.

He went to dinner last week with a couple of Scotchmen, and when the check came around, the only hand above the table was the waiter's.

NOR did he move, and he was an endurance contest.

FINALLY, one Scotchman got up and said he had to telephone. The other Scotchman went up with him to lend him a nickel.

WHEN they didn't come back he waited to see them for de- scription.

SIX weeks later he heard they were in Glasgow and tried to have them extradited.

HE said he didn't mind grabbing the check, but he wanted a little competition.

ONE of the fine arts in check- grubbing is to look here when the other fellow takes it away from you.

BUT a man's work doesn't stop at the dinner table. He also has to know how to fumble in the hat check room.

WHEN your friend succeeds in getting a quarter out of his trousers first, you should always offer an excuse for being so slow. You can tell him it was dark, your pocket that you couldn't see what you were doing.

EXPLAIN that you'd just had your pants cleaned with gasoline and was afraid to light a match.

RUT when he tips the last check you give him a dime, you'd try to make a date with her.

YOU'RE not entitled to any of these privileges on his change.

IF you feel romantic you should give her a dime, yourself and flirt on your own capital.

THERE'S no crime in fumbling, even though you have no in- tention of trying for the dime. It's always polite to grab for the bill and give the other man a stretch for his money.

HAVE you a hat-complex or a shoe-complex?

A man may have a gold-complex, a girl-complex, a money-complex, a duty-complex, or a man-complex, but every woman is obsessed with a hat-complex, or a shoe-complex.

To All Who Suffer Stomach Aches, Gas and Indigestion

Boston Druggists Make This Offer

Money Back If One Bottle of Dav's Mentha Peppin Doesn't Do You More Good Than Anything You Ever Used.

You can get so distressed with gas and fullness and bloating that you think your heart is going to stop beating.

Your stomach may be so dis- tressed that your breathing is short and gassy. You think— "I'm suffocating."

You are dizzy and your "quick belief—what to do."

Just one tablespoonful of Dav's Mentha Peppin and in ten minutes the gas disappears, the pressing on the heart ceases and you can breathe deep and naturally.

Oh! What blessed relief! But why not get rid of such attacks alto- gether? Why have chronic indigestion at all?

With this wonderful medicine you can overcome indigestion or dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach or any abnormal condition that keeps the stomach in constant rebellion, and one bottle will prove it.

Over 600 bottles sold in one small New Jersey town last year—and the best druggists the country over concede that its phenomenal sales are due to the fact that the most stubborn chronic cases are promptly conquered. Ask for Dav's Mentha Peppin, pleasant to take, health building stomach elixir that regular pharmacists anywhere in America dispense.

She doesn't buy a hat because she wants it or needs it—she buys it "just because."

She buys a new hat when she's feeling low and dispirited, to "put her up"—and she buys a hat, when she's feeling gay and excited, to "calm her nerves."

When she has had her salary raised she rushes out and buys a hat "just to celebrate."

And, when she loses her job, she rushes out and buys a hat to "give her new confidence" and help her get another job.

When her heart is breaking over the prospect of a well worn hat, she buys another hat to "churn the eye, and make the conquest per- sistent."

And when her head is whirling over the prospect of a well worn hat, she buys another hat to "churn the eye, and make the conquest per- sistent."

She is just a HAT-TOPIER, and she has as many alibis as any other type!

She may cheerily wear deary underwear, a last year's dress, and a multi-colored fur coat—but her HAT must be the "very last word!" And, she must have a whole closet full of them!

The only difference between a woman with the hat-complex and a woman with the shoe-complex, is that, when they look into the mir- ror, one sees nothing but her face, and the other sees nothing but her feet and legs.

A man's vanity may be con- tained on his waistcoat, his cravat or his shoulders—but a woman's vanity always goes either to her head or to her feet. Many a man would think at least one-and-a-half times before marrying a girl, if he could see her hair and her feet.

And, for a woman who has a "DOUBLE HAT-TOPIER" shoe-complex, there is no hope! Her husband is as good as bankrupt before he reaches the altar!

BROAD BEANS

After chattering broad beans, put them into a pan of boiling water, to which a little salt has been added, and boil until the beans are soft. If very young, they should be soaked in water for twenty minutes or more, and then drained. Add a little salt, and shake a little pepper and a little oil, and garnish with quarters of fried ham. Older beans may be served with melted cheese.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creosolium, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creosolium is a new medi- cal discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authori- ties as one of the greatest healing agents in the treatment of bronchitis, colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creosolium contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stom- ach, is absorbed into the blood, at- tacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creosolium is a natural product, a factory in the treatment of pres- ent and future colds, bronchitis, asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory disease. It is a safe and reliable remedy for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your Druggist.

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play if Constipated

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish, stomach sour?

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm tender stomach, bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! Is coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restlessness, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other child's ailments, give a other bottle of "California Fig Syrup," then you will see that it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours you will have a healthy child.

Be aware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-up plain- ly printed on the bottle. Look care- fully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Against the World Court

Why the Republicans of Maine Nominated Arthur Gould for United States Senator

To fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Bert M. Fernald, the Republicans of Maine have surprised the political forecasters of that State by nominating Arthur R. Gould, of Presque Isle, for United States Senator.

Bert M. Fernald was one of the small band of courageous Americans in the Senate who voted last January against American adherence to the World Court of the League of Nations.

"Bert Fernald was a great Senator, a great American," Arthur Gould said in announcing his candidacy in September, "and if elected I shall carry on the FERNALD PROGRAM TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY."

"I am not a pacifist. I abhor war, but I believe that the only safe policy this country can pursue, to prevent war, is to properly prepare ourselves in order that other nations may know we can defend ourselves."

"I AM OPPOSED TO THE UNITED STATES ENTERING THE WORLD COURT OR ANY OTHER ENTANGLING ALLIANCES WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES, AND IF ELECTED SHALL VOTE AGAINST ANY PROPOSITION ALONG THIS LINE."

Former Governor Percival F. Baxter, whom "everybody" picked to win the nomination, failed to make his position clear. Mr. Baxter made few speeches. He banked too heavily upon the fact that he had served two terms in the Governor's chair.

The former Governor, moreover, was "suspected" of being pro-League and pro-World Court. He has talked VAGUELY on the subject. HE "abhors war," too. He favors the World Peace movement, looks upon war as "ridiculous," favors a "better international understanding" and "less national selfishness," but believes the Army and Navy an "essential part of our governmental machinery."

Mr. Gould argued up and down the State that Portland having ONE United States Senator, in Mr. Hale, it was only fair that the other should come from some other section.

THAT argument must have helped, especially in Penobscot and Aroostook.

Former Governor Baxter had had an open break with Governor Ralph O. Brewster. THAT did Mr. Baxter no great amount of political good, whatever its effect upon the GOULD candidacy.

But it is our opinion that Mr. Baxter has experienced his first political reverse because he took too much for granted, failed to let the party know of his readiness and cheerful willingness to "carry on the Bert M. Fernald program."

Percival F. Baxter is an able man and a progressive. He has done some important things for Maine. Somewhat later, ALL statesmen and politicians, in Maine and elsewhere, will realize that when the American people said "No," to the League of Nations folly, they MEANT "No," and not "maybe."

In Maine, the Republican nomination is held to be "equivalent to election." If this assumption is correct, we can add the name of Arthur R. Gould to the list of true Americans in the United States Senate.

A King in His Nightcap

Prince Olaf, heir to the throne of Norway, wants to be a sailor. Because he is to be King his wish is denied. The rough life of a sailor is thought to be out of harmony with the popular idea of what a king should do.

The Prince of Wales was graduated from Oxford without having to take any examinations. One of his professors said:

"You couldn't examine a man who will be your King, you know! Besides, someone might be found who was better than His Highness, and that would be embarrassing."

Oliver Goldsmith once observed: "Even an emperor in his nightcap will not meet with half the respect of an emperor wearing his crown."

In a monarchical form of government appearances must be kept up at all costs.

The power of princes lies largely in keeping up an exploded illusion of universal superiority.

Negative Religion

Dr. Herbert Dickey, who has just returned from a nine months' trip in South America, declares that the natives there do not have much if any religion.

He says that what they have is entirely negative. They fear the evil spirits who cause lightning storms, floods and plagues, and about all the religion they have is in seeking to placate these spirits.

Most of the primitive religions are made up of man's fears of the forces of nature. An ancient Greek or Egyptian could hardly go out the house without being afraid of stepping on some god's toes.

The first religion had to be a fear of things. The development of a religion revolving about the idea of a god of love is rather recent in the history of mankind.

How Long and How Well?

The doctors are telling us how to live seventy-five to one hundred years.

But the mere extension of the life span is not, after all, man's greatest need.

Far more important, whatever the span, is how to live in the best possible way.

The doctors who tell us this aren't getting the hearing they deserve.

Snoopers

FEDERAL JUDGE FRANK H. KERRIGAN of San Francisco has earned the gratitude of all Americans who value their heritage of civil liberties. He has decided, in effect, that prohibition enforcement officers have no right to invade private premises without a search warrant. Americans, indeed, should be exceedingly thankful to Judge Kerrigan.

Odds and Ends of the Town

AN ERROR

FORMER ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT ROBINSON of the WEST END, where a hat at an angle makes any man on the universe, the peculiarity being that the front hides the rear part of his face. And now he is going to elevate it because he was suspected of being the driver of a hand car while campaigning in WILMINGTON. Police of the city have been troubled with many breaks and they stop everyone during the wee hours of the morning. "ROBBIE" was trailed to his car and when he reached there he found seven years without an accident. He asked him many questions. "Parson" said the car was a "hand car" and "ROBBIE" made himself known. "as though" he was never a driver of a get-away car for bandits.

ELEVATOR GIRL

Operating an elevator car for seven years without an accident, he is the record of MISS FLORENCE O'CONNOR, employed in the latter FISH MOUNT STREET building. Daily she plucks the life with a certain professional sense as her passengers.

ROLLER SKATING

With the safety of children always in mind, CHIEF GEORGE PINN of the CHELSEA police, ordered his men to put a stop to roller skating and the use of skaters in the streets. At the same time he ordered a more rigid prosecution of drivers of motor and speeders. The CHIEF intends to save the streets from injuries by putting a stop to two evils.

ELEVATION

REV. FRANCIS J. SPELMAN, D.D., who has been elevated to the rank of monsignor by POPE PIUS XI, was for seven years director of literature for the Boston archdiocese. He is a translator of ability, and his work of translating several of the most important books of the world of literature, entitled "The Word of God," has been highly commended by the clergy.

MISS MARY E. P. LOWNEY, assistant superintendent of rehabilitation in the STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, was one of a group of six who trained the children of the practice of law. MISS LOWNEY was the only woman in the group.

She has brought her in close touch with the law, as she has been instructor in the department of public law at the law school of the University of Massachusetts.

DEAN BRIGGS

Dean HARRISON BRIGGS of HARVARD UNIVERSITY, who has resigned his position as dean of the law school, has been named to the position of dean of the law school of the University of Massachusetts.

ATTORNEY POLIAGE

There's still a chance to see the ARNOLD ARDRETT, JAMAICA PLAIN, in all his glory. One of the more interesting sights in the winter is the one at the administration building.

SPARK OF KINDNESS IN THE WORST

By DR. FRANK CRANE

A N old gentleman in the West tells of seeing Lincoln shot.

He was a little boy running errands for the actors at the Ford Theatre in Washington in 1865.

Upon the whole, his recollection of what occurred on that April night is merely a repetition of details which are familiar to all.

But at one point he gives the story an original twist which presents a new angle of the character of the assassin, Booth.

A half hour before he rushed from the dress circle with his smoking revolver, he had patted the boy on the head, said a few kindly words to him and given him money to buy a top.

This is but one instance of many where social menace and personal kindness were contained in the same nature.

Jesus James, the outlaw who terrorized the West, was known for his kindness to the poor and needy.

Charles the First, one of the most despicable of English monarchs, was said to be one of the kindest of fathers to his own children.

A crooked political boss who ran a middle western town for years with an accompanying aura of graft and vice was known to the poor and destitute of the city as their best friend.

He was a doctor, and day or night, storm or heat, he could be depended upon to respond to the call of the most impoverished family in distress.

While he was lining his pockets with graft he was known to scores as a human personification of kindness.

A man who was sent to the penitentiary for arson said he burned packing houses where horse meat was packed because of his love of horses.

Many a criminal has been kind to animals, to children, to the sick and the aged.

This does not excuse his crimes. But it makes him seem less inhuman. It shows the spark of human feeling which completely depravity extinguishes.

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

Heaven's eternal wisdom has decreed that man should ever stand in need of man.

—Theocritus.

Many always complicate confusion in society wherever it resides.

—Pitoy.

The trust wisdom, in general, is a resolute determination.

—Napoleon.

Poverty often depicts a man of all sorts who is virtuously struggling for an empty bag to stand upon.

—Franklin.

All may do what has by man been done.

—Taine.

The more you expect of yourself, the more you are likely to fail.

—Bismarck.

The practice of others may be to you a teaching, but not what you are.

Low and Respectful

These Japanese Are Wise

HERE YOU SEE THE JAPANESE ADMIRAL YAMAMOTO, AND HIS STAFF BOWING AT THE TOMB OF ITALY'S "UNKNOWN WARRIOR."

Whatever the Japanese DO, they do SERIOUSLY AND WELL. Here in the foreground the Japanese admiral bends his body at right angles and his staff behind him bends low. The Italian crowd and Italian officials looking on delight in this most respectful show of reverence.

The Japanese, living for ages with instant power of life and death above them, from the Mikado down, have learned the art of profound respect. They are a courteous nation. Also intelligent.

Everybody in Europe likes Japan. These officers, as they bow low before the dead unknown Italian hero, are liked by the crowds. They are liked as much as THE UNITED STATES IS HATED.

While the war was on Japan was the actual ally of Great Britain and associated in the war as an ally with the other European nations. We were not allied with ANY of them.

Japan did not send a man to fight in Europe, or a single yen to spend on the war. She sent a few trained Japanese officers as "observers" to WATCH the air fighting, big tanks, submarines and report FOR JAPAN'S INFORMATION IN CASE OF FUTURE WAR.

But in that war in Europe Japan took no part. We sent millions of our men, thousands of millions of our dollars, fools that we were. And we are thoroughly hated for our pains.

The moral is, when other nations have a fight, LET THEM ENJOY IT, YOU KEEP OUT OF IT.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELISIE ROBINSON

ALLEN HOWARD says there's no justice in the world. A fact seems to back up Allen's peave.

Let's suppose that this is the only world there is and that things don't get any better out of the world. You can see at a glance what his peave is made of. Allen says: "What GOOD IS IT TO DO YOU TO FINE AND FIRST AGAINST THE THINGS WHICH ARE?"

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaels

OCTOBER, golden scepter, you have come to Earth again, upon your life in muted tones the past year's refrain, though this year's rhyme is as sweet as the year's before.

Now give the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars.

Now give the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars.

Now give the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars.

Now give the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars, the watchers beyond all stars.
